

You're Invited to Join!

The United Postal Stationery Society was formed in 1945 by a merger of the Postal Card Society of America, which had been established in 1891, and the International Postal Stationery Society, which had been organized in 1939. Today the UPSS is the largest society devoted to the collecting of postal stationery. Whether you collect a particular country, topic, or the world, you'll benefit from membership in the UPSS.
